

Meet the TEACHER

About Me

Hello Families! My name is Ms. Jenny. I am the co teacher in the Older One-Year-Old Classroom. I have been working at OCC for 8 plus years. I absolutely love my job and watching each and every child learn and grow in to their own little personalities. Every day brings something different and it is always exciting to see how the day will unfold.

I look forward to coming to OCC every morning. The smiles on the children's face when they see me walking through the door makes me very happy. I love knowing that all the parents trust me to ensure that their child is learning new things, experiencing a nurturing environment and that their child is cared for throughout the day. OCC feels like one big family with all the children, teachers and parents. I look forward to spending time and watching your child blossom in to an amazing little person!

Educational Experience
