COLD WEATHER REMINDERS

As fall settles in, please take this time to check your child's spare clothes to be sure they are weather appropriate and that they fit. Jackets, hats and mittens can be brought in and soon snow boots and snow pants too!!

On Tuesday, October 13th the Mequon and Grafton centers will be going on a combined field trip to the Spieker's Pumpkin Patch. More information will be handed out soon!

FAMILY HANDBOOKS

OCC has recently revised the Family Handbook. It will be emailed to all families. If you prefer a paper copy, you can request one from the office. All families are required to sign and return a new signature page confirming receipt and acknowledgement of the new handbook.

OCC FOOD POLICIES

With the upcoming festivities we want to remind all families that we are a Peanut-Free facility. There are several treats or snacks that contain peanuts, please avoid bringing these to share with the class.

It is our policy that you do not bring in any food from home, including during breakfast time. The only exceptions are if it is your child's snack day or they have a doctor's note.

A MESSAGE FROM MEQUON

Welcome New Staff and Families!!

Wyatt B. in Infants

Ms Nyla started with us as a full-time floating teacher in September. She has worked over several summers as a camp counselor and completed her bachelor's degree in Media Studies which focused on storytelling and the development of media for youth audiences.

Ms Katie started with us as a full-time floating teacher in September. She is currently finishing her bachelor's degree in Anthropology which she is eager to apply in her childcare career! She has experience working as a private nanny and is excited to start working with children again.
